F. I. WEAVER, Publisher, BERLIN, ONT

Phil. Series Vol III, No 2. MARCH, 1901. Old Series Whole Number 22.

Valedictory.

THIS is the last number of ENERGY under its present management. I have disposed of it to the proprietor of the Canada Stamp Sheet, of Quebec, who will merge the two papers into the Canada Stamp Sheet and Energy. When I established ENERGY in June, 1899, it was a variety monthly, but as such it was not much of a success. In February, 1900, I devoted it entirely to philately and since that time the patronage, in the way of subscriptions and advertisements, has been indeed gratifying, and it can readily be understood that, after publishing the paper for over a year under these favorable conditions, it is not because the paper is not a paying proposition that I have disposed of it. My time is fully taken up with other journalistic work which demands more of my time. ENERGY has never had the attention it should have had, therefore some months it has gone out with typographical errors which have caused me as much annoyance, and probably more than they have to many of my readers. But it is only natural for such mistakes to occur, the proof-reading having, in some cases necessarily, been left to the heartless printers, who by the way are not of philatelic persuasion. This, however, cannot be said of the issues gotten out by Messrs Starnaman Bros., who, being philatelists, know all about the philatelic words which seem worse than Latin to the uninitiated. I have been in the philatelic publication business since September 1898, when I was associated with the Messrs Starnaman in launching the Philatelic Advocate, which by the way, I had the honor to name. You all know the successful career of that journal, and though I was connected with it only for one year, I have ever since had a warm place in my heart for the old Advocate. It is, I believe, because of my having connected myself with that paper, that I owe my present occupation on the reportorial staff of a daily newspaper, and the many things I learned in amateur journalism, mostly by mistakes, I have since found to be very beneficial to me. No doubt there are many instances of amateur writers finding their way to their life work through first having entered the mystic realms of the "Fourth Estate" by publishing a small stamp paper. For this reason, if for no other, I am glad to see young men bring out new stamp papers, and especially when they show their mettle by continuing publication even though it is apparent that the paper is a losing venture. I say it is well worth the money spent, for it teaches many things which the young publisher will appreciate in after years. I hope the many patrons of ENERGY will extend to Mr. Paxman the same liberal support they did to me, and am sure the paper he will give you, will be far more worthy such support, than ENERGY has been under my hands. It was always hurriedly gotten out, and with many imperfections, for the reason that I had not the time at my disposal to give the paper the attention it deserved. Again thanking you for all past favors, I remain,

Very sincerely,

FINDLAY I. WEAVER.
